

“Making university simpler, more pleasant and productive.”

Slack's current state

Why Slack became so popular?

Slack replaced internal emails with quick instant messaging over channels

Slack has 18 million daily active users and 156,000 organisations use the app

"We couldn't have executed this initiative over email—too clunky. Or over the phone—too messy. The only way we could have done it was in Slack."
